

Jennifer Giangiulio, BSN, RN Shore Cancer Center Patient Navigation Manager

Jennifer Giangiulio, BSN, RN, brings over 17 years of experience in oncology nursing to her role as Patient Navigation Manager at Shore Cancer Center. Having worked at renowned hospitals across the country, including most recently as a Nurse Navigator at Penn Medicine, Jennifer has honed her expertise in providing exceptional care to cancer patients.

As Oncology Patient Navigation Manager, Jennifer serves as a central point of contact for all Shore Cancer Center patients, providing comprehensive guidance, coordination and advocacy to ensure they receive the best possible care and support -- from the moment they are diagnosed and through survivorship.

With her background in oncology nursing, Jennifer is able to help patients understand their diagnosis and treatments and navigate the complex healthcare system. She ensures effective communication and collaboration, helps streamline the patient's experience, and provides continuity of care.

Jennifer relocated to Northfield, NJ, in March 2021 with her husband and two children. She is proud to join Shore Cancer Center, a member of the Penn Cancer Network, and appreciates being a part of a community hospital and cancer center that takes pride in delivering exceptional patient experiences.
