

Kimberly Nell-Laughlin, APN

Kimberly Nell-Laughlin is board certified by the American Nurses Credentialing Center as an Adult Nurse Practitioner. She received her undergraduate BSN degree from Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, PA. Kimberly then earned her master's degree in Adult Oncology, also from Thomas Jefferson University. She is a member of the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners and Oncology Nursing Society.

Kimberly joined our practice in February 2021. She offers a vast experience in hematology and oncology as well as palliative care. Kimberly has a great interest in combining Eastern and Western philosophies in the management of side effects of treatments used to treat cancers. Kimberly was born and raised in South Jersey where she enjoys fitness, reading, traveling and spending time with her two sons.

